The San Francisco 49ers began their 22nd year of operation this season with the announcement that Louis G. Spadia, an employee of the club from the day it first opened its doors in 1946, had been named president of the organization.

A San Francisco native, Spadia served club founders Tony and Vic Morabito in capacities which ranged from office boy through business manager to general manager, which he became in 1952.

He has been the club's chief executive officer since the death of Vic Morabito in 1964.

Spadia, pictured above with Mrs. Josephine Heintzelman (Tony's widow) and Mrs. Victor Morabito, who control the ownership of the 49ers and who together with Spadia are general partners in the organization, named Jack White, a veteran in administration of professional athletics, to the job of general manager.

Art Johnson, who had been assistant general manager, was named assistant to the president.

White is a former coach with the old New York football Yankees, but most of his long career in professional athletics has been spent as a top administrative officer in the New York Yankee baseball organization.

He was a part-time talent scout for the 49ers before joining the club full time as Director of Scouting in 1965.

FORTY NINER PROSPECTUS — 1967

San Francisco's 49ers, an explosive but somewhat inconsistent team the past two years, could put everything together in 1967 as they send a proven offensive unit and a "come of age" defensive crew to battle in the National Football League.

One of the most exciting offensive teams in the NFL in 1965 and 1966, San Francisco will call on virtually the same operatives this year who have amassed 10,052 offensive yards, scored 741 points and finished 4th in the NFL Western Division over the past two campaigns.

John Thomas

Heading up the offensive talent available to Coach Jack Christiansen will be quarterback John Brodie, back for his 11th season, running backs John David Crow and Ken Willard, top receiver Dave Parks, tight end Monty Stickles and an offensive line that rates as one of the best.

The only major change in the 49er offensive unit will be at flanker, where traded veteran Bernie Casey will be replaced by either six-year man Kay McFarland or second-year man Dick Witcher.

Offensive depth will come from George Mira and Steve Spurrier, for a plethora of riches at quarterback; running backs Gary Lewis, Dave Kopay and rookie Bill Tucker, 6-2, 222; along with big second-year tackle Dave McCormick and third-year center Joe Cerne.

There is no veteran tight end behind Stickles, but Bob Windsor, a 6-4, 223-pound second-round draft choice as a "redshirt" in 1965, is considered a strong prospect.

With all that there is no question that San Francisco can move the ball.

On defense, after concentrated effort to strengthen the unit over the past three seasons, the 49ers seem to be shaping up well.

The front four, tackles Charlie Krueger and Roland Lakes and ends Clark Miller and last year's No. 1 draft choice, Stan Hindman, established fourth among the top units in 1966.

There are plenty of good people available at linebacker. The vets are Matt Hazeltine, in his 13th season, good-and-getting-better Ed Beard, back for his third year, and fourth-year player Dave Wilcox, now recognized as one of the outstanding backers in the NFL.

In the secondary, veterans Kermit Alexander and Jim Johnson return for their 5th and 7th seasons, respectively, with a tough battle for the two safety positions expected to be waged by George Donnelly (3rd season), Alvin Randolph (2nd) and rookies Milt Jackson and Richard Gibbs.

BY POSITIONS: OFFENSE

Receivers: Parks continues as one of the game's great wide receivers. Loss of Casey will be countered by use of Kay McFarland (6th year) and Dick Witcher (2nd), both capable flankers. Vet tight end Monty Stickles made several key catches last season, is strong blocker.

Running Backs: Strongmen Willard and Crow, a one-two power punch, backed by four-year men Gary Lewis and Dave Kopay, a duo only slightly less effective. Second-year men Jim Jackson and Bob Daugherty return. Top rookie prospect appears to be Bill Tucker, 222-pounder from Tennessee A&I.

Quarterbacks: Bonanza. John Brodie, George Mira and Steve Spurrier form the three-man corps. Y. A. Tittle is the quarterback coach. Take it from there.

Line: Perhaps the best offensive line in the game returns for its 4th year as a unit. Center Bosley and guards Mudd and Thomas all played in the Pro Bowl. Tackles Rock and Rohde are excellent.

Dave Wilcox

DEFENSE

Line: This group came on strong last year, should be even tougher this season. Krueger is one of the best defensive tackles in the game and Lakes is gaining more respect each year. End Miller is strong and reliable and second-year man Hindman is expected to make a strong contribution at the other end.

Backers: Three good veterans return for their starting jobs—Hazeltine, Beard and Wilcox, now rated as one of the best outside backers around. Backing them is veteran Bob Harrison and a high-quality corps of rookies which includes Cas Banaszek (1st round, Northwestern), and Frank Nunley (3rd, Michigan).

Secondary: Alexander and Jim Johnson provide an experienced set of halfbacks, and a pair of tall youngsters, George Donnelly, 6-3, and Al Randolph, 6-2, are the strongest safety candidates. Donnelly was a starter last year until injured, Randolph finished the year as a starter. Another good 2nd-year man, Mel Phillips.

FORTY NINER COACHES

JACK CHRISTIANSEN, Head Coach

Even though he hasn't played since the 1958 season, 49er Head Coach Jack Christiansen is still remembered as one of the best defensive backs the National Football League has ever known.

And, after a little less than four seasons as San Francisco's coaching leader, he has established himself as one of the foremost young men in the NFL's coaching ranks.

After taking over a team that was admittedly down, Chris began the painstaking, and painful, job of building a contender and most observers feel that he has succeeded. His overall record as head coach is 19-32-2, but 13 of the wins have come in the past two seasons.

Chris will be in his fifth season as 49er head coach after being named interim coach, Sept. 30, 1963, taking over on a permanent basis prior to the 1964 season.

He has spent his entire NFL career with just two teams. Eight playing years (1951-58) were with the Detroit Lions, and he has been a member of the 49er coaching staff since.

He was the Lions' sixth draft choice in 1951 and soon justified the club's selection by becoming an All-Pro in his second year. All told, he was named All Pro 6 of his 8 seasons and participated in 5 consecutive Pro Bowl games.

Statistically as leader of the famed "Chris's Crew," Detroit's tough defensive secondary Chris totaled 46 interceptions for 717 yards and three TDs; 85 punt returns for 1,184 yds. and eight TDs and 59 kickoff returns for 1,429 yds. He still holds all NFL records for scoring on punt returns.

Prior to joining the Lions, Chris was an outstanding football player and sprinter at Colorado A&M, now Colorado State University. Was recently inducted into the Colorado Hall of Fame.

Chris and his wife, Doris, live in Palo Alto with their four daughters—Terri, Jacki and twins Jani and Joni.

BILL JOHNSON, Assistant Coach

San Francisco fans who followed the nine-year playing career of Bill (Tiger) Johnson, always rated him among the top centers in the game. Their confidence was justified when he was named to the All-Time Pro Bowl team by the Helms Athletic Foundation.

Bill was captain of the Tyler, Texas, Junior College team that won the national title, plus the Little Rose Bowl classic in 1947. These honors followed almost three years in the Pacific with the Navy.

Signed by the 49ers primarily as a linebacker in 1948, Bill played very little as a rookie because of a broken wrist. However, he took over the following season at offensive center and provided much of the blocking that made the 49ers noted as pro football's strongest running club in the early 1950's.

Bill is the 49er chief offensive coach. He and his wife, Dot, reside in Palo Alto, Calif., with their three children—Bill, Jr., 18, Sherilyn, 17, and Tommy, 9.

FORTY NINER COACHES

BILLY WILSON
Assistant Coach

Billy Wilson rejoined the staff in the spring of 1964 as offensive end coach and the return was immediately hailed by 49er fans.

In slightly more than nine years of National Football League history, Billy engraved his name deeply into gridiron records. His nine full seasons, plus four games in 1960, show a total of 407 pass receptions, one of the great marks of its kind in the NFL.

Drafted by the 49ers in 1950 as a 21st "redshirt" choice, he joined the club in 1951 and immediately gained a place among the NFL's leading receivers. He tied for the pass receiving crown in 1955 with 53, then led in 1956 with 60 and again in 1957 with 57.

Billy, who has Sac and Fox Indian blood, was born on a reservation near Sayre, Okla. He grew up in Campbell, Calif., and served three years in the Navy before enrolling at San Jose State where he was an All-Coast performer in both football and basketball.

A perennial All-Pro choice, his biggest thrill was being named the Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl in 1955. Billy and his wife, Shirley, live in Campbell with their four children—William Wynn, 13; Greg, 10; Holly, 8; and Tracy Marie, 4.

Y. A. TITTLE
Assistant Coach

Y. A. Tittle, one of the game's magic names, remains a part of professional football, despite his retirement as an active player, by working with the San Francisco 49ers in an advisory capacity as a part-time coach.

Tittle, recognized as one of the best quarterbacks ever to play in the National Football League, does special work for Head Coach Jack Christiansen with the 49er quarterbacks. He also sits in on offensive planning sessions and works with Billy Wilson on the press box phones.

Actually, Y. A. rejoined the team with which he spent most of his National Football League career. The former LSU star played 10 of his 18 active seasons in 49er livery before his final four years with the New York Giants.

When he retired after the 1964 season, Tittle had thrown 3,817 passes, completed 2,118 of them for 212 touchdowns and 28,339 yards, more than 16 miles in yardage. He also has a career pass completion average of an amazing 55.4 per cent.

Tittle was NFL "Player of the Year" in 1957 after leading the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the same honor again in 1961 and 1963 as he took the Giants to Eastern Division championships.

FORTY NINER COACHES

DICK VORIS
Assistant Coach

Beginning his sixth campaign with the 49ers is Dick Voris, who joined the staff after two years as Director of Player Personnel and Assistant Coach with the Green Bay Packers.

Voris, a graduate of San Jose State, was an outstanding center and linebacker at Santa Cruz High, Hartnell Junior College and San Jose.

His coaching career started on the high school level. He returned to Hartnell as head coach for two seasons (1952 and '53), his teams going undefeated in 21 games. He was line coach of the Los Angeles Rams in 1954 and in 1955 joined Earl Blaik's staff at West Point as line coach and chief assistant. He was a third year member of the Army staff when he resigned to become head coach at Virginia. He left Virginia in 1961 to join the Packers.

Dick and his wife, Idelle, live in Mountain View with their three children—Richard, Jr., 18, Susan 17, and Ronald, 16.

JIM SHOFNER
Assistant Coach

Jim Shofner replaces Jim David as defensive backfield coach for the 49ers this year, making his debut as a coach with the professionals after a distinguished six-year career as a regular defensive back with the Cleveland Browns.

A star at TCU from 1955 through 1957, Shofner was Cleveland's No. 1 draft choice prior to the 1958 season and spent his entire playing career as a member of the starting defensive unit.

A native of Ft. Worth, Texas, Jim returned to TCU as an assistant to his former college coach, Abe Martin, after his retirement as an active player.

Jim and his wife, Nancy, are the parents of two children, son Mike, 5, and daughter Elizabeth, 2. They live in Menlo Park.

FORTY NINER COACHES

DAN COLCHICO
Assistant Coach

The addition of Dan Colchico to the 49er coaching staff marks an increase in the overall number of coaches on Chris' crew to seven. Big Dan, forced to retire as an active player by an injury sustained at the opening of the 1965 season, aids chief defensive coach Dick Voris in coaching the 49er front four.

Colchico, who played college football at San Jose State, was a seventh-round draft choice as a "redshirt" in 1959, joined the 49ers in 1960 and became a starting defensive end from his first season.

After the 1961 season, he was named to the All-Time 49er honor team by a vote of Northern California sportswriters and sportscasters, and was named by a vote of his teammates as winner of the Len Eshmont Award following the 1962 season.

Dan, and wife, Nancy, and four young Colchicos—Melinda Louise, 12, Joseph Mario, 9, Dominic Leo, 5, and Mathew John, 4—live in Port Chicago, Calif., Dan's native town.
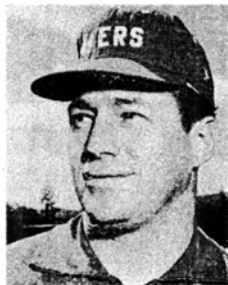

LYNN O. WALDORF
Director of Personnel

A former president of the American Football Coaches Association and one of the most respected men in sports, Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf joined the 49er organization in 1957. Since then, he has built up a talent-scouting force second to none. His efforts have been responsible for many new faces on the San Francisco roster in the past years and the current crop of newcomers is rated among the finest in the club's history.

A tackle at Syracuse University in the early 1920's, he coached at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma State, Kansas State and Northwestern before taking over what he termed the "Sleeping Giant" at the University of California in 1947. Under his tutelage, the Golden Bears won three consecutive Pacific Coast Conference titles—1948-49-50—and represented the West in the annual Rose Bowl classic at Pasadena. His 10-year record at California was 66 wins, 32 losses and four ties.

Pappy was elected to the National Foundation Football Hall of Fame last year, one of the few coaches to achieve that honor.

One of the nation's top after-dinner speakers, Pappy is especially noted for his limitless supply of limericks. He and his wife, Louise, live in Berkeley. They have two daughters and five grandchildren.

FORTY NINER STAFFERS

LINCOLN KIMURA

Trainer

Beginning his fifth season as head trainer for the 49ers is Lincoln "Linc" Kimura, one of the most highly regarded men in his field.

Kimura began as a student assistant trainer at San Jose State in 1946 while an undergraduate. He earned his AB degree in 1948 and became the school's first full-time trainer, a job he held until joining the 49ers full time.

Linc, who also holds a Master's degree in education from Stanford, is a charter member and former president of the Pacific Coast Trainers Association. He has been secretary-treasurer of the organization since 1955, and holds several committee appointments in the National Athletic Trainers Association.

CHICO NORTON

Equipment Manager

Regarded as one of the most knowledgeable men in the business, Chico is beginning his 13th year as equipment manager for the 49ers.

He also works for the San Francisco Giants stadium maintenance crew at Candlestick Park, putting in half a season with the Giants before serving the 49ers full season.

Chico first entered professional athletics when he went to work for the San Francisco Seals baseball team in 1948.

His real first name is Forrest, the Chico coming from his home town of Chico, California. Norton, and wife, Sylvia, now live in San Francisco.

THE 49ER STORY — 1946-1966

From a modest beginning in 1946, the San Francisco 49ers have grown into one of the most flourishing franchises in professional sports.

A major league football franchise in the City by the Golden Gate had long been the cherished dream of Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito, a native son and 1931 graduate of the University of Santa Clara. Failing to win recognition from the National League, Tony turned to the All-America Conference, which began operations in 1946 with the late Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, as the guiding genius.

Although the AAC went under after four years of intense competition with the NFL, it proved Morabito's point that San Francisco was a major league city. Sports fans of the entire Bay Area took the 49ers to their hearts and attendance grew by the proverbial leaps and bounds.

The club's success was predicated on Tony's oft-repeated slogan of "Go first class or not at all," and his early organization was built around such honored names as Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw, head coach; and Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee, Alyn Beals, Johnny Strzykalski and Len Eshmont—all of whom were already top drawing cards in collegiate and pro football.

The 49ers were the perennial runners-up to the mighty Cleveland Browns throughout the history of the AAC and, masterminded by Shaw on the bench and Albert on the field, became noted nationally for daring, colorful football. The AAC ended its short but exciting life when the Browns defeated the 49ers, 21-7, in the championship game of 1949, San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore became members of the NFL.

After 21 years of slam-bang battling in the NFL, the 49ers has yet to win even a divisional championship. They've come close, tying Detroit for seasonal honors in 1957 but dropping the playoff. But in every season except seven—1950-55-56-58-52-63-64—the San Franciscans have been in the thick of the title fight.

49ER STORY (Con't)

Here are the highlights, beginning with the first year in the NFL:

1950—The 49ers fell flat on their faces in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951—In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race to the final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y. A. Tittle and Billy Wilson began their great careers.

1952—After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in midseason. It can't be written off as unsuccessful for Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.

1953—The 49ers had their best NFL showing, 9-3, normally good enough for a championship. But Detroit was 10-2. Two of the San Francisco losses came with Tittle benched because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954—Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Tittle, McElhenny, and Joe Perry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction.

1955—With McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader who succeeded Shaw as head coach.

1956—In Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were bogged in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They won four and tied one of their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957—This undoubtedly was the most emotional and dramatic season in 49er history. Every game was a "Cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Tittle to rookie R. C Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing, 17-7, the 49ers fought back for their greatest victory of all time, 21-17. The magnificent Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, although they held a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958—An up-and-down season which finished on a high note when Green Bay and Baltimore were defeated in the last two games. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacings at the hands of Los Angeles and Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959—With Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. J. D. Smith, converted from a defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960—Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of the last five games to finish in a tie for second place. Third-string quarterback Bobby Waters threw the passes that upset Baltimore, 30-22, in the final two minutes.

1961—The success of Hickey's Shotgun amazed the football world, especially the 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the Shotgun was stopped, Brodie took over again in the T and had the finest season in 49er q.b. annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 must remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49er history.

1962—For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished the frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at home, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963—Injuries in multitude to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a smashing 20-14 upset of ultimate World Champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964—Club co-founder Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injury to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season, although they proved to be one of the toughest defensive clubs in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by end Dave Parks, quarterback George Mira and linebacker Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4-10 overall record.

1965—Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie Ken Willard and veteran John David Crow, acquired in an off-season trade, led a strong ground game. The over-all record was 7-6-1 and the season-opening 52-24 beating of the Chicago Bears marked the largest number of points ever scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

1966—After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before midway in the season and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual World Champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they rolled to a respectable 6-6-2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. Guard John Thomas and end Dave Parks were All Pro, and they joined guard Howard Mudd, center Bruce Bosley, fullback Ken Willard and linebacker Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

49ER BAND AND HALF-TIME SHOWS

The colorful San Francisco 49er Band came into existence just two years after the 49ers themselves began operations. Joe McTigue organized and led the band from its beginning until this year, when he gave up the band leadership, but remains as 49er half-time director. Earle Mahan, a long-time member of the band, took over as band director.

A listing of the 1967 pre-season and league season half-time shows scheduled by McTigue:

Aug. 13 (Cleveland): St. Mary's Chinese Band
Aug. 20 (Dallas): Jazz Festival (49er Band)
Sept. 24 (Atlanta): The Young Americans
Oct. 22 (New Orleans): University of Pacific Marching Band
Oct. 29 (Detroit): Grants Pass High School [Oregon] Marching Band
Nov. 5 (Los Angeles): The annual state Pompon Rally
Nov. 26 (Baltimore): Milwaukie [Oregon] High School Marching Band
                                         Area Competition—Punt, Pass and Kick
Dec. 3 (Chicago): Sacramento City College Marching Band
Dec. 16 (Dallas): Medford [Oregon] High School Marching Band
                                     Western Division Competition—Pass, Punt and Kick

49ER TELEVISION AND RADIO

BOB FOUTS
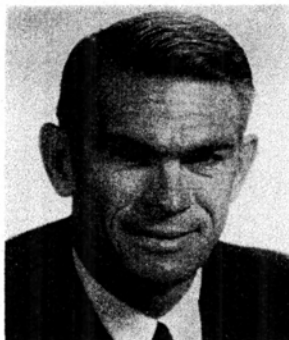

GORDY SOLTAU

Bob Fouts and Gordy Soltau will again handle the television narration of San Francisco 49er football games. Fouts is currently in his 13th season as television voice of the 49ers, while Soltau, former great 49er end, is in his 9th year as "color" announcer for the telecasts.
